OF CONTENTS

A tear rolling down the cheek of a senior graduation night reflects all. The four years of screaming at every pep rally, not just singing but feeling the Alma Mater, the pride when someone once said that he wished he went to RHS, and the many hours spent making each Homecoming, Twirp Week, and Stunt Night a success could mean only one thing. We love it here, and isn't that what spirit is?

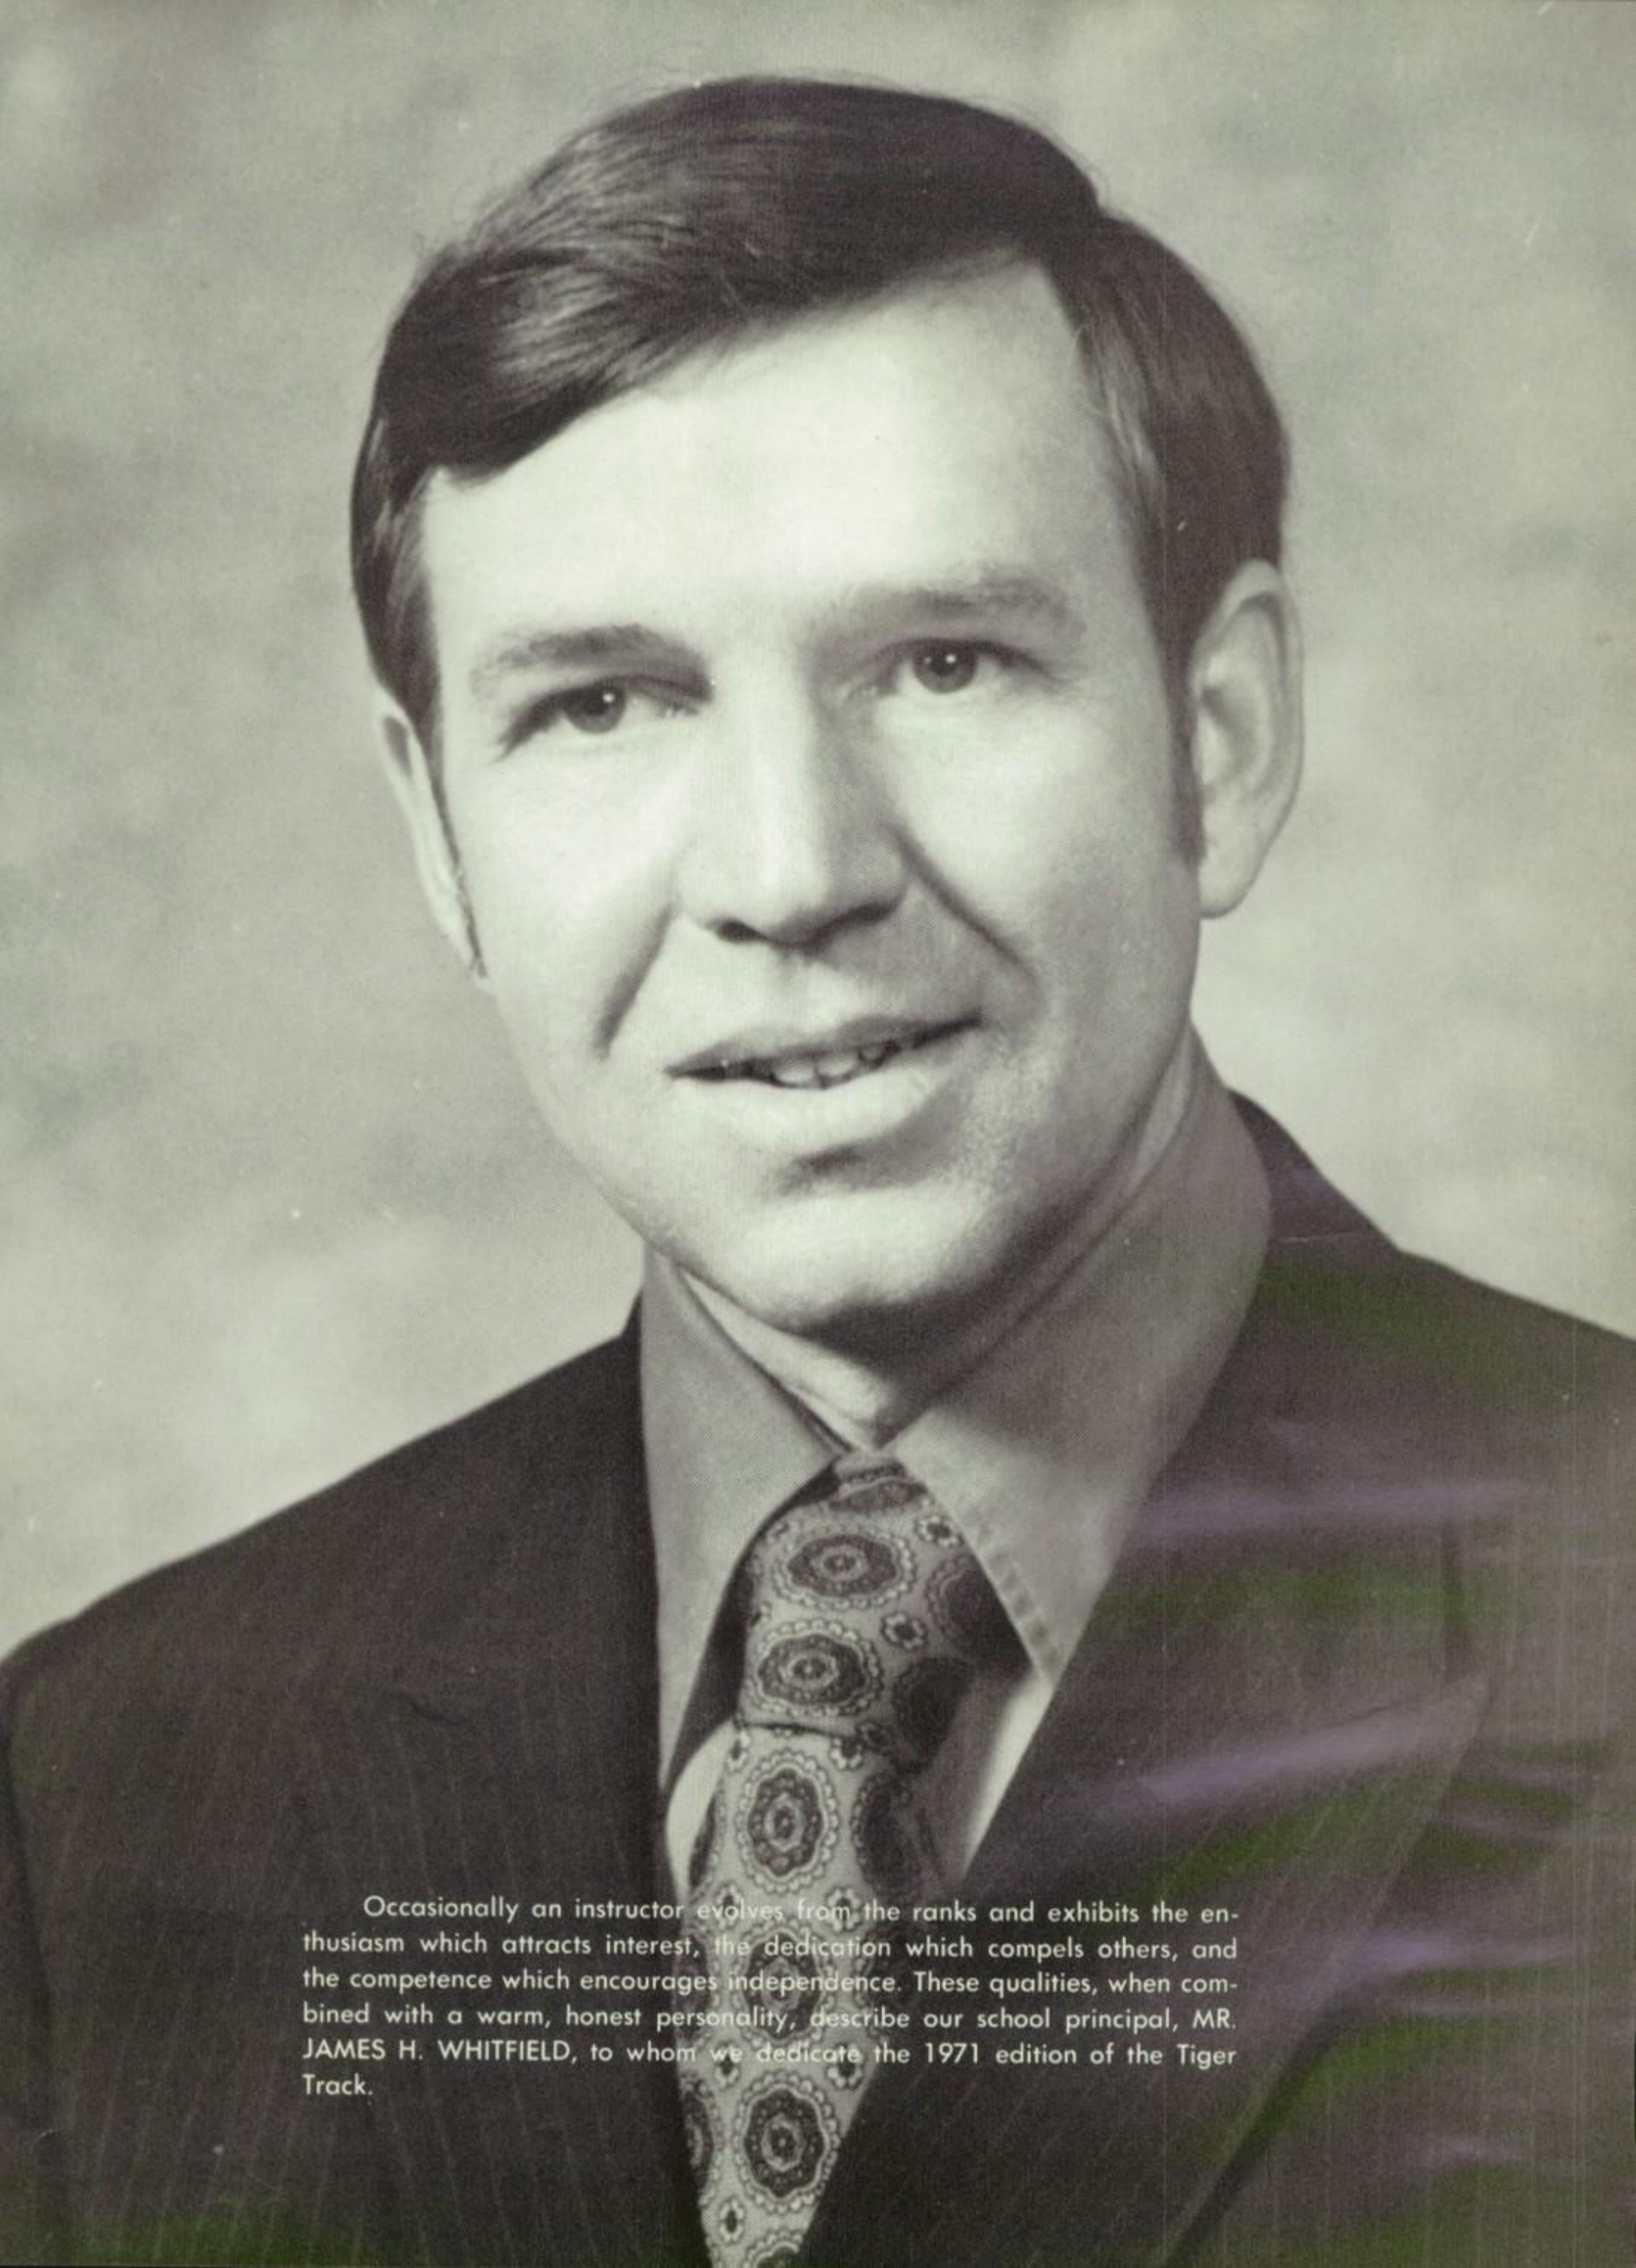

We worked at our lives—our triumphs and failures. We put everything we had into whatever we did. And we enjoyed it. To have a cause, a reason, and strive to make it succeed is what makes our lives worth reflecting on. With dedication like this, our lives become a success.

RHS is a center of study, work, fun, and laughter—yet there is no work or play without others. To really live life, people must be with one another; they must cooperate. All aspects of life at RHS depend on people working and playing with other people. Through this fellowship we learn to love and never forget how it is done.

Occasionally an instructor evolves from the ranks and exhibits the enthusiasm which attracts interest, the dedication which compels others, and the competence which encourages independence. These qualities, when combined with a warm, honest personality, describe our school principal, MR. JAMES H. WHITFIELD, to whom we dedicate the 1971 edition of the Tiger Track.

Haleyville action. Golden Tigers win 18-0.

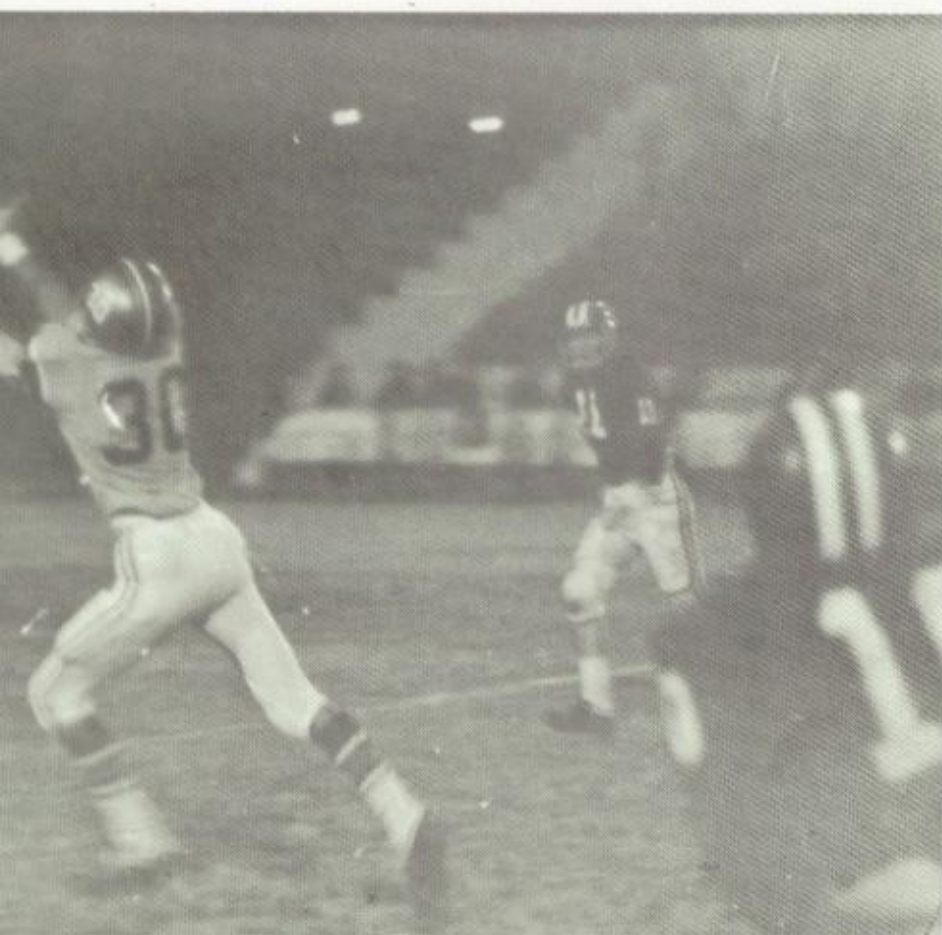

A Golden Tiger finds the traffic real thick as he bulldozes out yardage against the Colbert County Indians. A score of 46-21 in favor of Colbert County showed that the Indian tribe was in command all the way.

Golden Tiger quarterback Joe Kirkpatrick gets off a pass just before being tackled by a Coffee Yellow Jacket. The Golden Tigers outlasted the Yellow Jackets 14-7.

R. J. Bonds reaches into space and grabs a pass from quarterback Berry Robinson, while a couple of Muscle Shoals Trojans watch. The pass was good for 6 points. The Trojans edged the Golden Tigers 15-13.

Football Action

A pack of Golden Tigers lead the way for Steve Osborn as he takes a handoff from Quarterback Berry Robinson against the Austin Bears. A fourth-quarter touchdown and two-point conversion was enough for the Bears to win 8-7.

Football Action

The Russellville defense gave the Golden Tigers two of their three touchdowns as they clipped Bradshaw 20-14. David Willis along with Steve Hammock crashed through to block a Bradshaw punt. Ricky Kirkpatrick pounced on the ball in the end zone for the score.

The Russellville Golden Tigers found the going real tough in the first game of the season against Deshler. The Deshler Tigers downed the Golden Tigers by a score of 27-12.

The Golden Tiger defense is shown smothering a Cherokee Indian. However, the Tiger defense lacked one time smothering the Indians enough as they slipped by the Golden Tigers by a score of 6-0.

John Hodge and Guy Ray Stowe are shown closing in on No. 31, a Sheffield Bulldog. Even though the Golden Tigers put on a thrilling fourth-quarter surge, the game ended with a score of 15-8 in favor of the Bulldogs.

Cherri,

What can I say, your the best girl any boy would ever dream of having. I don't see how you can put up with me. I may seem hard to handle sometimes but Cherri I think you know that I love you very much and I think you love me also. We may have a few angry words, but they never last over night. Cherri I hope you will never change because I love you just the way you are. Cherri I don't want you to change. Now it must seem kind of funny me, saying all these thing because I've never said this to anyone before. I wish I could think of a long paragraph to write so I won't get kill when I give this annual back to you. Cherri I want you to know that even though I may get mad and all puff up, ~~it~~ when I look in your eyes that the madness doesn't last long. Just remember that I love you and I always will!

Love always,
